STATE GRANT TO FUND NEW AWOS – The Airport received a grant in April of 2024. Special ordered new unit – four to five months for delivery. The new unit should be received and installed in September or October of 2024.

KANSAS AIR TOUR 2024 – Bill Pyle gave an update. The State of Kansas Air Tour will be held this summer in September or October. Airports were asked to apply to host one of the stops on the tour. If selected, 5th and 6th graders from local schools will be invited to attend. There will be 25 to 30 aircraft and aviation professionals on site.

NON-AGENDA REPORTS AND REQUESTS:

AIRPORT DAY/FLY-IN – Bill Pyle talked about having an Airport Day/Fly-In where the public would be invited to see the new Apron Reconstruction and Expansion Project. The date for the event will be sometime in late summer.

AIRPORT PARKING APRON ADVERTISEMENT – David Moore and Ron Brock discussed different ways of advertising the new aircraft parking apron and how to get information to pilots wanting to fly into Pittsburg.

AIRPORT FLY-IN – David Wycoff asked about having an Airport Fly-In one afternoon in late summer. He suggested inviting pilots from nearby airports and having a bbq lunch.

AVGAS PRICING – Geoffrey Hines asked about Avgas fuel pricing per gallon. Bill Pyle talked about how fuel price is set when the tanker load of fuel is purchased. The adjusted price remains until the next purchase of fuel.

ADJOURNMENT – There being no further discussion, the meeting adjourned.
